Penguin Loves Mev

In the UK

Something in common with you

Someone says his lover is like air.

Another says his lover is like a hole.

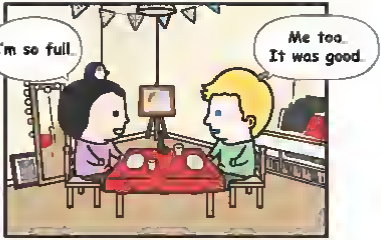
Do you know what
Mev said to me recently?

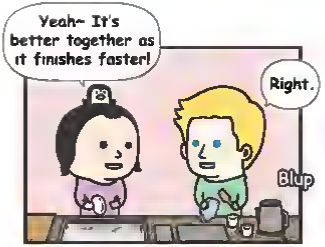


One evening, after dinner

We needed to tidy up the table and clean the dishes.

Both of us were not keen on washing up.

Finally we decided to do it together.



Meanwhile,
Mev also boiled the kettle
to make tea.

The new kettle that we bought a few days earlier made a loud noise while it boils water.

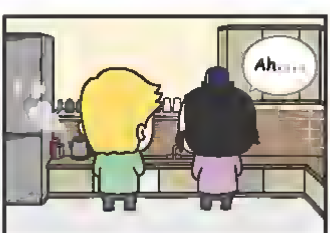
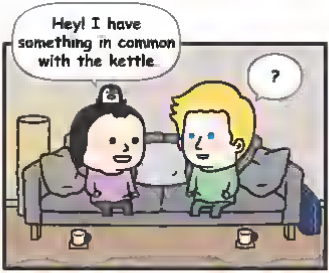
Then he said
the kettle was like me.

I couldn't agree at all.

Mev answered calmly.



I needed to agree with it.



Hey! I have something in common with the kettle.

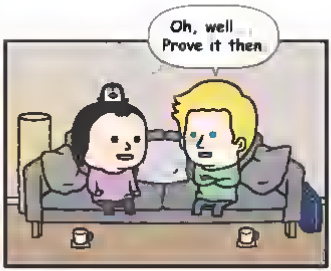
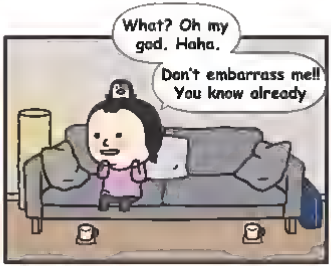
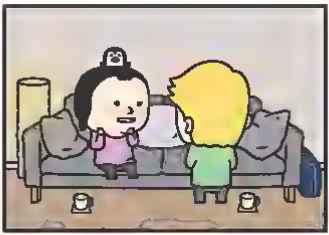
We are both very hot Hee-



Oh, well...
Prove it then.



What? Oh my god. Haha.
Don't embarrass me!! You know already.



What a sad story it is...
